STIPULATION REGARDING DISCOVERY;
PROTECTIVE ORDER

16 1. As described more fully below, the parties, pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of 17 Criminal Procedure, for the reasons set forth below, request that the Court enter a Protective Order in 18 this case restricting the use and dissemination of certain materials containing statements and other 19 confidential information of victims, witnesses, and third parties, including confidential witness 20 information.

21 2. The investigation was developed based, in part, on information provided by witnesses 22 and confidential sources, whose identities will be apparent to the defendants/defense upon review of the 23 reports, photographs, and/or recordings contained in the discovery material.

24 3. The purpose of the proposed Protective Order is to prevent the unauthorized 25 dissemination, distribution, or use of materials containing the statements and information of these 26 witnesses. If this information is disclosed without protective measures, or to defendants without 27 limitation, it will risk the privacy and security of the person to whom the information relates. The 28 information could itself be used to further criminal activity if improperly disclosed or used. The United

1 States has ongoing obligations to protect the witnesses, including confidential witnesses, contained in 2 these documents and/or recordings.

3 4. Accordingly, the parties jointly request a Protective Order that will permit the 4 government to produce the materials, but preserves the privacy and security of the witnesses. The 5 parties agree that the following conditions, once ordered by the Court in the proposed Protective Order, 6 will serve the government's interest in maintaining the privacy and security of the witnesses, while 7 permitting the Defense Team to understand the United States' evidence against the defendants.

8 5. This Court may enter protective orders pursuant to Rule 16(d) of the Federal Rules of 9 Criminal Procedure, Local Rule 141.1, and its general supervisory authority.

10 II. PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

11 A. Protected Materials

12 6. This Order pertains to discovery provided or made available to defense counsel for 13 defendant Clement containing the statements of witnesses, victim, and confidential witnesses in this case 14 (hereafter, collectively "Protected Materials").

15 7. To the extent that notes are made that memorialize, in whole or in part, the identity of the 16 witnesses, or statements that indicate the identity of the witnesses, in any Protected Materials, or to the 17 extent that copies are made for authorized use by members of the Defense Team, such notes, copies, or 18 reproductions become Protected Materials, subject to the Protective Order and must be handled in 19 accordance with the terms of the Protective Order.

20 B. Defense Team

21 8. For purposes of this Order, the term "Defense Counsel" refers to the defendant's counsel 22 of record.

23 9. For purposes of this Order, the term "Defense Team" refers to (1) the defendant's counsel 24 of record, (2) other attorneys at defense counsel's law firm or defense organization who may be 25 consulted regarding case strategy in the above-captioned matter, (3) defense investigators who are 26 assisting defense counsel with this case, (4) retained experts or potential experts, and (5) paralegals, 27 legal assistants, and other support staff to defendant's counsel of record providing assistance on this 28 case. The term "Defense Team" does not include defendant, the defendant's family, or other associates

1 of the defendant.

2 C. Disclosure of Protected Materials

3 10. The Defense Team shall not permit anyone other than the Defense Team to have 4 possession of or to discuss the details of the Protected Materials, including the defendants themselves.

5 11. No person or party shall use any Protected Materials or information derived from 6 Protected Materials produced in this action for any purpose other than use in the above-captioned case.
7 All Protected Materials shall be used solely for the purpose of conducting and preparing for pre-trial,
8 trial, post-trial, and appellate proceedings (both direct and collateral) in this criminal action and for no
9 other purposes whatsoever, and shall not be used for the economic or other benefit of the defendants, or 10 any third party. Protected Materials may be disclosed and discussed only to and with the categories of 11 persons and under the conditions described in this Order.

12 12. This Order does not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the 13 Eastern District of California from disclosing the Protected Materials to members of the United States
14 Attorney's Office, law enforcement agencies, the Court, and defense.

15 13. Defense Counsel shall advise the United States with reasonable notice of any subpoenas, 16 document requests, or claims for access to the Protected Materials by third parties if Defense Counsel is 17 considering disseminating any of the Protected Materials to a third party, in order that the United States 18 may take action to resist or comply with such demands as it may deem appropriate.

19 D. Ensuring Security of Protected Materials

20 14. The Defense Team shall maintain the Protected Materials safely and securely, and shall 21 exercise reasonable care in ensuring the security and confidentiality of the Protected Materials by storing 22 the Protected Materials in a secure place, such as a locked office, or otherwise secure facility where 23 visitors are not left unescorted.

24 15. A copy of the Protective Order must be stored with the discovery, in paper form and 25 electronically.

26 16. To the extent that Protected Materials, or any copies or reproductions thereof, are stored
27 electronically, the Protected Materials will be stored on a password-protected or encrypted storage
28 medium, including a password-protected computer, or device. Encryption keys must be stored securely

1 and not written on the storage media that they unlock.

2 17. If a member of the Defense Team makes, or causes to be made, any further copies of any 3 of the Protected Materials, Defense Counsel will ensure that the following notation is written, stamped
4 or inscribed on whatever folder, container, or media contains the copies: "PROTECTED MATERIALS-5 SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER." For example, if Defense Counsel makes a copy of a disc or 6 physical file containing Protected Materials, the duplicate disc or file must be encrypted and marked
7 with the above notation. In the event that the Defense Team makes or causes to be made copies of the 8 Protected Materials for purposes of hearing or trial, it does not need to include this inscription.

9 E. Filings

10 18. In the event that a party needs to file Protected Materials with the Court, the filing should 11 be made under seal as provided for by the local rules. If the Court rejects the request to file such 12 information under seal, the party seeking to file such information shall provide advance written notice to 13 the other party to afford such party an opportunity to object or otherwise respond to such intention,
14 including by making a request that the filing party redact the identity of the confidential witness. If the 15 other party does not object to the proposed filing, the party seeking to file such information may file the 16 information without redaction.

17 F. Conclusion of Prosecution

18 19. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this prosecution. All
19 Protected Materials subject to the Protective Order maintained in the Defense Team's files shall remain
20 subject to the Protective Order unless and until such Order is modified by the Court.

21 20. Upon final disposition of the case, including exhaustion of direct and collateral appellate 22 proceedings, Defense Counsel shall return the Protected Materials to the government, or certify in 23 writing that the Protected Materials have been destroyed.

24 21. If, upon final disposition of the case, defendant requests a copy of the Protected Materials
25 from Defense Counsel, Defense Counsel may provide a copy of the Protected Materials to the defendant
26 provided that Defense Counsel ensures that the identity of the confidential witness contained in the 27 Protected Materials is fully redacted.

1 G. Termination or Substitution of Counsel

2 22. In the event that there is a substitution of counsel prior to final disposition of the case,
3 new counsel of record must join this Protective Order before any Protected Materials may be transferred 4 from the undersigned defense counsel to the new defense counsel. New defense counsel then will 5 become Defense Counsel for purposes of this Protective Order, and become Defense Team's custodian
6 of materials, and shall then become responsible, upon the conclusion of appellate and post-conviction
7 proceedings, for complying with the provisions set forth above. All members of the Defense Team, 8 whether current or past counsel, are at all times subject to the Protective Order and are not relieved by 9 termination of representation or conclusion of the prosecution.

10 H. Modification of Order

11 23. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any party from seeking modification to the Order or 12 from objecting to discovery it otherwise believes to be improper. Nothing in this Order shall prevent any 13 party from seeking a more restrictive protective order with regard to particular discovery items.

14 I. Violation of Order

15 24. Any person who willfully violates this Order may be held in contempt of court and 16 maybe subject to monetary or other sanctions as deemed appropriate by the Court. This provision does 17 not expand or narrow the Court's contempt powers.

18 J. Application of Laws

19 25. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect or comment on the admissibility or 20 discoverability of the Protected Materials.

21 26. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to affect the application of and the parties'
22 compliance with the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Local Rules, and applicable statutes.
